Thurman says he wants no office whatever. The democratic party doesn't seem to want to give him any either.

Out of 1500 lawyers in Philadelphia, only 19 belong to the churches. The doctors appear to think a little more about the life to come, as out of 1,150, some 120 are church members.

The prohibition candidate for governor of Pennsylvania is Barr Spangler, and can throw a cow over his shoulder. That is the kind of a man the prohibitionists need,—some one that can "take the bull by the horns."

The democratic papers are still firing away at John Sherman for alluding to the suppression of republican votes in the south by the democrats. It makes the democrats squirm to have their record talked about.

On the 22d of this month, the republican convention of New York will be held. On that day the republican convention will have an excellent opportunity to nominate a candidate for governor that the democrats can not beat.

A new daily has been started in Chicago, and is to be a penny sheet. It is a four-page paper, with seven columns to the page, but on Saturdays and Sundays will be double that size. The proprietors and editors of the new venture are men from the Times office. C. R. Dennet, for the past six or seven years managing editor of The Times, will be the editor in charge of The Sun; he takes with him some of the ablest members of The Times staff.

The census just taken in Tennessee shows that there are 300,000 worthless dogs in that state, which consume food enough, if fed to hogs, to make 30,000,000 pounds of bacon, or enough to give meat to an army of 100,000 able-bodied men a whole year. To carry the calculation still further, the bacon, at 10 cents per pound, would be worth $3,000,000. This, if paid in silver, would load down ninety-four two-horse wagons. The keeping of these dogs prevents farmers from keeping 2,000,000 sheep, the mutton and wool from which would be worth $5,000,000.

Mr. T. C. Richmond, chairman of the prohibition state central committee, is out in a card, declaring that Colonel Ellsworth, the anti-prohibition and anti-high-license lecturer, is uttering falsehoods in his public harangues, against himself "and other friends of temperance throughout the state." Mr. Richmond states that the prohibitionists dropped Ellsworth because his course "made it absolutely impossible for us longer to deal with him or keep him in the lecture field." Mr. Richmond considers that "the conduct of this man Ellsworth, since we discharged him, has fully justified our action and shown the wisdom of the course we adopted."

To show the differences of opinion among the temperance people as to the proper course to pursue, politically, the following is a good illustration. The grand lodge of good templars, of New York, one of the oldest and most efficient temperance organizations in the country, which has just closed its annual session at Schenectady, adopted by a three-fourths vote a report declaring the organization non-partisan and discouraging the formation of a third party. The sentiment of the body seemed to be in favor of voting for the candidates, democratic or republican, who most nearly embodied the temperance idea, as while they had not votes enough to elect straight out prohibition candidates, their votes in many instances would elect the candidate of the other parties who most nearly filled the temperance requirements. There is much good sense in this movement.

The report of the railway commissioner of the state shows that the Chicago and Northwestern's stock is valued at $74,920,320; of the lines in this state, $17,951,940; total income of whole line, $23,503,460. Operating expenses, $13,151,322. Total bonded indebtedness, Wisconsin, $21,915,194; whole line, $91,460,500. Total of stock and bonded debt per mile, $43,291.02. Miles of road, Wisconsin, 920.91; whole line, 3,843.31. Passenger earnings, Wisconsin, $1,608,807.89; whole line, $16,353,412.70. Paid for construction during 1884, Wisconsin, $5,106,075.37; whole line, $21,310,832.10. Total amount of road built during the year, 64 miles. Total number of passengers carried in Wisconsin, 1,448,448; whole line, 8,453,737. Tons of freight carried in Wisconsin, 3,092,518; whole line, 8,252,748. Total number of passengers killed and injured in Wisconsin, 6; employes, 80; other persons, 32.

Mr. Troup the new internal revenue collector of Connecticut, is an honest-minded democrat—that is honest about the nature of the democratic administration. When he was interviewed the other day he gave this honest democratic gospel: "Mr. Dawson is a republican. That is just why I shall suspend him on September 1. Why do you suppose I was appointed collector? I knew nothing about the office and I was appointed to it simply because I was a democrat. What reason have I to keep a republican office-holder in his place? My predecessor, Colonel Selden, had twenty years' experience and was a thoroughly trustworthy and efficient officer. Because he was a republican he was turned out, and because I was a democrat I was put in. As a democrat I shall have no republicans under me. That is all there is about it. Colonel Selden's deputies are all honest, efficient and trustworthy officials, and I thoroughly believe them to be so. They are republicans and I am a democrat. They will have to go, for I don't believe the president put me in Colonel Selden's place to keep a lot of republicans in office. This may not be popular doctrine with the mugwumps and civil service reformers, but it's my doctrine and that is more to the point." Collector Troup should have added that it was the doctrine of the administration which was practiced but not preached; and that the other side of the question is preached but not practiced.

It is now thought that if Mrs. Grant gets $50,000 from sales of Gen. Grant's book she will be doing well. The explanation of this reduction in the estimate is simple. All sorts of cheap publishing concerns are getting out "Lives of Grant", and these are aimed off, in many instances, as the book written by the great soldier himself. The sharks of the publishing business are at present engaged in robbing a widow.—Chicago Tribune.

The "sharks of the publishing business" are not as much to blame in this matter as Charles L. Webster & Co., who have in hand the publication of General Grant's memoirs. The manuscript of the first volume has been prepared for several months. For some time before his death, it needed no more than a careful reading and punctuation to make it ready for the printer. But the firm did not seem to be in any hurry in getting out the book. They were more interested in selling territory than in pushing the publication of the memoirs, while all this dallying was going on, several enterprising but irresponsible firms went to work and got out lives of Grant. Of course, in some respects such biographies of General Grant are spurious, but they sell and seem to satisfy the people. If Mrs. Grant shall suffer a severe loss by these ill-timed biographies, so none will be more to blame than Charles L. Wilson & Co. It is understood that the first volume of the legitimate memoirs will be published some time in December next, and the second in March or April of next year.

The second comptroller of the treasury has decided an interesting pension question. Mark Newman died in August, 1884. His application for pensions on account of disabilities incurred during the war was granted October 4, 1884, and entitled him to $2,439 at the time of his death. Having left no widow or children, no part of the accrued pension became payable except enough to reimburse the person who bore the expenses of his last sickness and burial, under section 4,718 of the revised statutes. John Parsons at whose house the dead pensioner lived, after his discharge from the army in 1864, for a portion of the time down to his death, filed a claim, amounting to $4,401, for expenses incidental to his last sickness and burial, on the theory that the injuries received by the pensioner while in service were of such a serious and permanent character that the whole period of time which intervened between his discharge and death, about twenty years, is to be regarded as his last illness. The claim was once passed upon by the accounting officers and in January, 1885, an account was stated in favor of the claimant for the whole amount of the accrued pension, $2,439. The second comptroller, in deciding the case, says that the phrase, "last sickness," has always been limited to that which is the immediate cause of death, and can never be applied to a long period of disability as in this case, from which no fatal results were to be immediately apprehended. The comptroller allows the claimant for expenses of board, nursing and care of the pensioner, $320; for bill of physician, $92, and for funeral expenses, $57—in all, $469.

COWARDS OR FOOLS

Attempt to Murder a Young Woman Because She Wanted to Choose Her Own Husband—A Dastardly Case in Baltimore.

RED BANK, N. J., Sept. 2.—Miss Susie Westcott, her parents, and her sister, of Brooklyn have been guests this summer at the Newman Springs hotel, on the Shrewsbury river, about one mile from this place. Miss Susie is an attractive young woman, and has had several admirers, the most ardent of whom was Dr. George W. Curry, a young physician of Red Bank. It is not known that the lady gave any particular encouragement to Dr. Curry, who was of a rather unstable disposition. His father is wealthy. Dr. Curry drove to Newman Springs hotel from Red Bank early Monday evening and asked Miss Susie to walk up and down the porch. For several minutes the young couple carried on a conversation in low tones, and then Dr. Curry was heard to exclaim impetuously: "Miss Susie, will you marry me to-morrow?"

"Indeed, I can not do that," answered the young lady mildly.

"Well, if I will go away somewhere, brace up, and make my mark in my profession, will you be my wife?" persisted the doctor.

Miss Westcott was not prepared to enter into any positive engagement on the spot, and she told Dr. Curry so, adding: "But if you do try to make your mark in your chosen profession, and meet with success, and then come and ask me this same question again, I will give you a frank and prompt answer."

This did not please the impulsive suitor, and, turning abruptly, he asked: "Do you care more for somebody else than you do for me?"

"Yes, I do," said the girl; "somebody who is far away from here."

"Then I will kill him and you too," cried the young doctor, in a passion. Suiting the action to the word he drew a revolver and fired directly at Miss Westcott. Both were then standing on the bottom step of the porch.

The young lady screamed and fell to the ground. Thinking that he had killed her the doctor pressed the muzzle of the pistol to his abdomen and again fired. The bullet inflicted but a slight wound. Then deliberately turning his face toward the lawn in front of the hotel the desperate man pointed the smoking weapon at his right temple and pulled the trigger. He fell dead almost instantly. Meanwhile Miss Susie had found herself able to rise, and she ran shrieking into the hotel. Meeting the daughter of the landlord in the doorway, she exclaimed, "O merciful God, I am shot!" An examination disclosed the fact that the first bullet from Dr. Curry's revolver had struck the steel of the young lady's corset and glanced off without injuring her. Curry was a popular young man, with a large circle of friends. He was a native of Utica, N. Y., a graduate of the Philadelphia Homeopathic college, and before coming to Red Bank ten years ago, had practiced a short time in Brooklyn where, it is said, he first met Miss Westcott. Curry's father resides in a very handsome house in this village. He is reported to have made a great deal of money in extensive land transactions. The body of young Curry was taken in charge by the coroner, who will hold an inquest Friday. Miss Westcott is still greatly agitated over the affair.

The Woman-Killing Coward Again.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The residents in the vicinity of Paca and Franklin streets were startled about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening by four pistol shots in quick succession. The reports emanated from 161 North Paca street. A policeman rushed into the house, the front door of which was open, and encountered Thomas B. Rial, until recently a member of the fire department, in the hall, who grasped a smoking revolver in his hand. A second officer proceeded to a room in the rear of the house on the first floor, to which he was guided by the moans of a person in distress. Entering the room he found Mrs. Anna Rial, the wife of the fireman, lying upon the floor with blood streaming from two wounds, one in the left breast above the nipple, the other in the right thigh. Medical assistance was quickly summoned, and the flow of blood staunched. The woman's injuries are serious. Thomas B. Rial was taken to the station. Domestic infelicity was the cause of the crime.

To Strike or Not to Strike.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 2.—The river miners' Knights of Labor convention at Monongahela City Tuesday sat with sealed and guarded doors from morning until evening. Every man present was closely questioned by eager groups. President Costello, representing the Amalgamated association, was among the waiters and watchers. He professes entire ignorance of the conclusions. It is current on the streets that a strike has been ordered for Friday next, for 3 cents, but the laws of the order forbid strikes, except approved by a majority of local lodges. It is understood that secrecy is enjoined until a circular is prepared which will present the case and order the strike. This action does not meet with favor by the officials of the Miners' association.

The Everlasting Ohio Mining Trouble.

SHAWNEE, Ohio, Sept. 2.—All the miners of this place are out demanding an increase in the price of mining from 40 to 50 cents. The operators are willing to give the price asked, providing a similar advance is made at New Straitsville. A committee has gone to that place to attend a mass meeting. It is understood that New Straitsville wants the price to be made 60 cents, and it is feared an amicable settlement can not be arrived at. The operators here are very anxious for the trouble to be settled, as they have plenty of orders to keep their mines running.

Telegraph Property for Sale.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The property of the Postal Telegraph company in the state of Maryland, by order of the court issued upon application Tuesday by the local receivers, will be sold on Sept. 24. Messrs Snowden and Dobbin, the receivers, it seems have concurred with the opinion of the New York officials of the company that it was best to close up the business in Baltimore and have dismissed all the employes except the manager and one operator and closed the several branch offices. The main office only will remain open and will, it is understood, be used as a test office.

Industrial News Condensed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 — Cotton-mills in Baltimore county, Maryland, which have been idle for several months, are about to resume operations with several thousand employes. The strike of the Baltimore glass-blowers, which has continued since last winter, has ended in a victory for the men. The strike of tin can makers at Baltimore has become general. Glass works at Wheeling, W. Va., employing 300 men, have resumed operations, after nine months' suspension.

POLITICS IN THE BUCKEYE STATE.

Foraker at Portsmouth—Hoadly and Leonard—Campaign Notes.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Judge Foraker, the Republican candidate for governor, delivered his opening campaign speech here Tuesday. He reviewed the history and achievements of the Republican party, and dwelt at length upon the attitude of the south. With reference to the liquor question, he said:

The people of Ohio want another such law as the Scott law was, and they not only want it, but they intend to have it. Not that we imagine that such a law will be entirely satisfactory to everybody, for we do not. On the contrary, we know that some people will be satisfied with nothing but license, others with nothing but prohibition, while others want absolute free trade, such as we are practically having now; but because so long as we live under our present constitution—which we must do until the people change it—it is the only practicable and the most nearly satisfactory measure we can have.

In view of the record that the people of Ohio have made with respect to license, we are warranted in saying that our Democratic friends mean by their declaration that nothing whatever shall be done with the liquor traffic. License was voted upon and defeated by the people when our present constitution was adopted. It was voted on and defeated again by the people by an overwhelming majority in 1874. It was a third time voted upon and defeated by the people in 1883.

Hoadly's Answer to Leonard.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The Democratic state executive committee have issued the following answer to Dr. Leonard's challenge:

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1885.—To HON. R. S. THOMPSON, CHAIRMAN PROHIBITION STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, SPRINGFIELD, OHIO—DEAR SIR: Your communication asking for a joint debate to be arranged by our respective committees between Governor Hoadly and Rev. A. D. Leonard has been received. You are aware that Governor Hoadly in his speech on the day of his renomination by our recent convention announced that he was willing to join in debate with your candidate and Judge Foraker. No fair and exhaustive discussion of the issues in this contest can be had without all parties being represented. As your challenge does not include the Republican candidate for governor, it is respectfully declined.

Yours very truly,
T. E. POWELL, Chairman,
HENRY BOHL, Secretary.

Want Leonard Investigated.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 2.—A great many copies of a petition have been quietly circulated among prominent Methodists in this city and section of the state asking the Cincinnati Methodist Episcopal conference, which meets here on Thursday, to investigate the charges of using stimulants brought against Dr. Leonard, the Prohibition candidate, and his course in politics, and that he be requested to resign his pulpit or abandon politics. The author is unknown, and none but Methodists have been allowed to see it. Leonard's friends declare it a scheme of the liquor-dealers to smirch the character of the Prohibition candidate, but there is said to be no doubt that the petitions will be presented to the conference bearing many signatures.

The Iowa Fusion Ratified.

DES MOINES, Sept. 2.—A conference of committees from the Democratic and Greenback organizations was in progress all day Tuesday. Gen. Weaver, in behalf of the Greenback candidates, announced their acceptance of the action at Cedar Rapids, which satisfies the requirements of a few reluctant Democrats. Judges Whiting and Brannon attended, as did Congressman Murphy. As far as was possible the work for the campaign was arranged.

The Curious Crowd—Cost of the General's Funeral—Remarkable Case of Surgery—A Woman That Wanted a Husband Badly.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Many persons were at Gen. Grant's tomb in Riverside Tuesday morning, waiting to see the widow of Gen. Grant, who was expected to visit her husband's last resting place. Carriage after carriage came up Riverside drive, and the occupants were closely scanned by the curious. On the arrival of each person the guard, who paced slowly up and down the short walk in front of the tomb, was asked: "Has Mrs. Grant been here yet?"

At noon the greater part of the crowd had departed, in the belief that Mrs. Grant would delay her visit until evening. Only a few persons, mostly women, were grouped in front of the tomb when another carriage came into view and was driven rapidly toward the place. The vehicle was somewhat shabby and the few idlers did not exhibit the curiosity of a short time before. The driver was dressed in faded livery and it was supposed that only another party of ordinary visitors had appeared; but when the carriage drew nearer, the form of Col. Fred Grant was recognized. The carriage stopped in front of the tomb and was immediately surrounded.

Mrs. Grant was dressed in black, with a heavy crepe veil hanging from her bonnet, and concealing her features. She began to throw it back as her son gave her his arm and they walked toward the tomb, but noticing the inquisitive gaze of the spectators, she lowered the veil again, and walked slowly to the door of the vault. When Mrs. Grant appeared before the resting place of the general, the fifty spectators divided, the guard stood at "present arms," the park policemen stopped the chatter, and the gentlemen present raised their hats and stood with bowed heads while she passed them. She released her arm from that of her son and taking hold of the iron grating stood gazing within. Her son stood at her left, hat in hand. His mother was overcome with emotion. Her form trembled. The son noticed her, and placing his arm about her waist, drew her gently from the place and returned to the carriage which awaited them. Those present turned their heads, and some women wept in sympathy.

Mrs. Sartoris did not accompany her mother and brother to her father's grave, but was driven to the house on Sixty-sixth street where she remained until they returned.

"The cost of Gen. Grant's funeral has been greatly overestimated," Gen. Perry said in his office on Governor's island. "I have heard it said that the total amount will be $50,000, while I am told that even $100,000 has been guessed at. The bill for the government's share in the expenses has been sent to me, and by me forwarded to Washington. This bill does not include the cost of transportation of the body of Gen. Grant from Mt. McGregor to New York, together with the funeral train and the passengers, besides the pilot engine which was ahead of the funeral train. That was a present from the railroad company. Neither does the bill include the cost of keeping Gen. Grant in state in the city hall in New York, nor in Albany. The cost of all the lying in state in New York city, whatever that may be, will be borne by the municipal government. The total amount will be less than $20,000. The largest item in the bill is $5,000 for carriage hire. When it is remembered that New York, Jersey City and Brooklyn were called on to contribute carriages at the usual rates for carriage hire, this amount will not be considered large. The bill is itemized. "It is not believed," added Gen. Perry, "that the bill will be questioned or changed at Washington, because it seems a reasonable carge, but do not report my words in the way of commenting on or criticizing the bill."

Of Interest to Surgeons.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—A remarkable operation was performed at the Charity hospital in this city Tuesday. Mrs. Ann Curry, who is 50 years of age, has suffered for two years with malignant cancer of the abdomen. She was induced to enter the Charity hospital recently, where she was visited by Dr. Thomas H. Allen. When told that an operation, from the effects of which no patient has ever recovered—and only three left the operating-table alive—was her only chance of life, Mrs. Curry announced her willingness to take the risk rather than live longer in such misery. The operation was performed Tuesday afternoon in the presence of several well-known New York surgeons. The patient was placed under the influence of ether, and Dr. Allen made a long, straight incision into the abdomen, from the pit of the stomach downward, and the assistants tied the arteries. A spray atomizer was used to sprinkle an antiseptic fluid upon the wound. Dr. Allen removed the abdominal organs, while his assistants tied one artery after another. It was discovered that the bladder and several surrounding organs had been attacked by the germs of the disease, and these had to be scraped until all the traces of cancer were gone. The work was finished in a few minutes, and the opening in the stomach was drawn together and sewed up with a fine silver wire. These stitches were afterwards supplemented with others of catgut. The cancer weighed nearly twelve ounces. Mrs Curry was taken to her room in safety, and all danger of a primary shock was removed. Dr. Allen said that it was hardly possible for the patient to recover, but he had great hopes that the operation would prove successful. At a late hour Tuesday night Mrs. Curry's pulse was strong and full.

Bound to Have a Husband.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—A woman, who said she was Mary Tildeman, 29 years old, visited Mayor Low of Brooklyn, accompanied by a well-dressed man, and asked the mayor to marry them, which he did. The certificate gave the man's name as Charles Graham of 6 St. Felix street, which address was also given by the woman. Later the same young woman was admitted to the Flatbush hospital, as she was about to become a mother. While refusing to give her real name the woman said she was the daughter of a well-to-do resident of south Brooklyn, and that last March a young man to whom she was engaged betrayed her under promise of immediate marriage. Her love disappeared, and she not only determined not to reveal her shame to her parents, but to get some man—she did not care whom—to marry her. With this object in view, June 12 she started out to find a husband, and in Worth street, this city, she met a young man whom she had never seen before, stopped him, and, explaining her position, asked him to marry her. The young man consented to her proposal, and together they went to Brooklyn, where the mayor married them. Then Charles Graham left her and she has not seen him since. After the ceremony had been performed the young wife told of her marriage to her parents, but they, in spite of the fact that she had the certificate, refused to believe her, and when her condition became apparent they turned her out of her home.

Must Not Build on Riverside Drive.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—In the supreme court Tuesday, Judge Barrett rendered a decision continuing the injunction granted at the instance of the owners of the lands along Riverside drive, in the vicinity of Gen. Grant's tomb. The action is brought against certain persons who propose to erect buildings there, claiming to own the property. The injunction was originally obtained to prevent the erection of booths for the vending of food and drinks at the Grant funeral.

PARNELL STATES HIS POSITION.

An Irish Parliament His Object—Foreign Notes.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—At a banquet Tuesday night, attended by 300 Irish leaders, beside the Irish members of parliament, Mr. Parnell made a speech explaining his recent remarks which have been taken to mean a demand for separation. He declared that England could either grant the Irish the right to rule themselves by a parliament or make Ireland a crown colony, which would have practically the same results. Until this was done the parliamentary party should try to make it impossible for the English to legislate on Irish affairs. Outrages such as have become frequent of late, were to be severely condemned as terribly hurtful to the cause. The absorbing question with Ireland was that of the land, and it was to be settled by other methods than this.

Parnell was enthusiastically cheered throughout the speech. He reminded his hearers that the statement that home rule in Ireland was impossible emanated from the same man who once said that local government was impossible. Referring to moonlight outrages in Kerry, though he thought the perpetrators had some excuse in their desperation and poverty, he prayed Irishmen to forbear. With equal emphasis he asked landlords during the coming winter of farming depression to show the stuff they were made of by refraining from exacting rents which the soil refused to yield. If landlords persisted in exacting a full pound of flesh, in future there would be little flesh left to exact. Parnell said he was confident that Ireland was on the brink of victory.

Tornado in Austria.

VIENNA, Sept. 2.—A tornado, accompanied by a severe rainstorm, caused much damage Tuesday in the duchies of Carniola and Carinthia. At Laybach a number of dwellings were unroofed and several storehouses, filled with newly-reaped wheat, were demolished. In addition to the buildings destroyed by the tornado, many were set on fire by lightning and burned. Large trees were uprooted. Hundreds of cattle were drowned by the inundation of the fields. In Carinthia the floods were especially severe and several towns were partly submerged.

Gladstone's Health.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Before leaving his yacht at Wick Mr. Gladstone made a little speech to the crew in recognition of their skill and fidelity. It was noticed that his voice was clear and strong. Dr. Sir Andrew Clarke reports Mr. Gladstone's health considerably improved, and says that he is on the road to complete recovery provided he does not exert his strength.

Cholera at Genoa.

ROME, Sept. 2.—Cholera has appeared in the province of Genoa. Two cases are reported at Voltri, which is only a few miles from the city of Genoa. There are also three cases at Tuoro and two at Borgo-Taro.

New Use for the "Wheel."

VIENNA, Sept. 2.—The Austrian military authorities have decided to employ bicyclists as scouts in the intelligence department at the approaching army maneuvers.

Cattle Quarantine in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 2.—The Illinois live stock commission Tuesday made its report and recommendations to the governor relative to the status of pleuro-pneumonia in other states. On this a proclamation of quarantine will be based.

The commission recommends that the governor establish a conditional quarantine against all of the states of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee, and also that portion of the state of Pennsylvania east of the Allegheny mountains, and that part of the state of New York south of the Mohawk river and east of the Chenango river, providing that cattle shipped shall be accompanied by proper health certificates. The commission also recommends, on account of Texas fever, the exclusion of all cattle south of the thirty-sixth parallel of latitude, such exclusion to be in force between the 1st of April and the 1st of November.

A Healthy Sort of Picnic.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 2.—The interstate picnic, which is an annual occurrence at Williams' grove, Cumberland county, was formally opened Tuesday. There were at least 10,000 people in attendance, and the indications point to an increased attendance during the remainder of the week. The exhibition of machinery and farming implements of all kinds is very large, all the prominent farmers in the eastern, and many in the western states being represented. In the afternoon an able address was delivered by grand master of the State Grange, Leonard S. Rhone, of Center. John Norris, of The Philadelphia Record, will give special attention to anti-discrimination.

Still Worrying the Referee.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 2.—John S. Kennedy, representative of McCaffrey, arrived here Monday night and had an interview with Referee Tate relative to the decision concerning the Sullivan-McCaffrey fight. The result is that telegrams have been sent to the stakeholder to come here with the original copy of agreement and to Sullivan to send a representative. On their arrival a consultation will be held with a view to settlement of the disputed points. Tate declines to go to Cincinnati.

Mrs. Walkup Gets a Postponement.

EMPORIA, Kan., Sept. 2.—When the time came for the preliminary examination of Mrs. Walkup Tuesday, the attorneys for the accused woman asked for and obtained a postponement until next Monday. Mrs. Walkup remains under the sheriff's care, and is treated almost as one of the family. The boy Willis has been released, and will return to New Orleans with Mrs. Wallace. There were no new developments Tuesday.

Elements Have a Spite at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 2.—A very heavy rain and windstorm Monday caused damage to the extent of about $100,000 in this city. Last week's cyclone caused a less amounting to $2,000,000, and a damage of $500,000 to buildings. The citizens are not disheartened by these misfortunes, and are pushing repairs forward. New cotton is now coming in and being handled promptly.

Not a Bit Longer.

[Times of India.]

A gentleman met a boy and asked what o'clock it was. Being told that it was just 12 he expressed some surprise, and said he thought that it was more. "It's never more in these parts, sir," said the boy, simply; "it begins again at 1." In order to explain in a clear and simple manner the necessity of regulating our conduct by some fixed standard, a schoolmaster asked a pupil what he ought to do with his watch if it were sometimes too slow. "Sell it," was the immediate response. A child who had just mastered her catechism confessed herself disappointed because, she said, "though I obey the fifth commandment and honor my papa and mamma, yet my days are not a bit longer in the land, because I am still put to bed at 7 o'clock."

Before a man settles down he should settle up, and before a man settles up he must settle down.

CHOLERA'S TRAVELS.

COURSES THE PLAGUE HAS PURSUED IN THE PAST.

How the Pestilence Was Brought Across the Atlantic Ocean, and How It Scattered Throughout the United States.

[Inter Ocean.]

The march of cholera toward Chicago is fearfully anticipated, since the experience with past epidemics of the disease teaches us that escape next year is hardly to be hoped for. There is a painful interest in noting the course the plague pursues in its advance upon the great central points of civilization. In 1832 cholera prevailed in France to such an extent that 120,000 deaths occurred within the year, 7,000 of which were in the short space of eighteen days. In the spring of the next year it appeared in England and in Ireland. From Liverpool, Cork, Limerick, and Dublin five vessels of emigrants sailed for Quebec, and 179 deaths occurred during the passage. These ships were put in quarantine at Grosse Isle, but on June 7 a vessel conveyed a load of these emigrants, with their baggage, to Quebec and Montreal. Cases of cholera occurred at Quebec the next day. From Montreal the emigrants were forwarded by the emigrant society as fast as they arrived, and the pestilence was sown at each stopping place. The epidemic in that way reached Detroit, continued west along the great lakes, and in September the military posts on the upper Mississippi were attacked, and the most fatal effects were displayed when the disease reached the troops at Fort Dearborn. The infection was both direct and indirect between the sick and the well. An infected mattress flung from a passing vessel was picked up by a man, and both he and his wife died of cholera.

In October, 1832, the brig Amelia, with 108 persons on board, sailed from New York for New Orleans. The disease appeared on board the sixth day out. The brig was stranded on Folly island, ten miles from Charleston, and in two days the disease began spreading among the inhabitants of that island. Before that there had never been a case of cholera within 200 miles of Folly island. An emigrant ship having cholera on board reached New York, whence the disease spread up the Hudson, and was carried southwardly to Philadelphia, and thence to the west.

In 1833 the disease broke out in Havana, whence it was carried to Mexican and American towns on the gulf of Mexico, and up the Mississippi and Ohio as far as the western border of Pennsylvania. The next year there was a second outbreak at Quebec, occassioned by a vessel of emigrants coming in. The disease prevailed in Canada and New York, and thence spread all over the country in 1835-36. Then there was a gradual subsidence and the disease disappeared for nearly ten years.

In 1845, however, it entered upon its old path, and reached England in October, beginning with Sunderland, the very town it first visited in 1831. Two vessels sailed from Havre, one for New York, the other for New Orleans, both carrying German emigrants. The New York boat occasioned an epidemic in the quarantine grounds. There was no quarantine at New Orleans the sick of the vessels were conveyed to hospitals, and a severe epidemic ensued. A boat from New Orleans to Memphis carried the disease to the latter point, and the next spring it spread thence to St. Louis, Cincinnati and the whole Mississippi valley. In October it reached Sacramento by means of overland emigrants, and San Francisco by steamer.

In 1849 the disease reappeared in New York, and 5,000 persons died. The disease rested until 1853, when it broke out in Teheran, Persia, destroying 11,000 persons, and reached France, where 114,000 died, and England, where there were 16,000 deaths. In 1854 emigrants introduced it into New York, whence it was carried to Philadelphia, extended to many towns in New England, and was borne along the western channels of emigration. There was a rest until 1864, when the cholera broke out among the pilgrims to Mecca. It reached Europe in 1865, and was thence borne by the usual means to North America and the West Indies. In 1866 it was carried from Halifax in troop ships to New York and the various southern ports, from whence its progress could be traced to Texas and the gulf states, and to the towns of the Mississippi and Missouri.

The last appearance of cholera in the United States was in 1873, when it occurred at three points far distant from each other, being introduced in the effects of emigrants. These were Carthage, Ohio; Crow River, Minn., and Yankton, D. T. In each place twenty-four hours after the poison particles were liberated the disease appeared. It is thus shown that cholera is not general in this country from any local conditions, but depends upon the introduction of the specific poison of the disease. Water is the main channel through which the infectious principles of the disease are spread, but the particles can also be conveyed in clothing, proving fatal when liberated.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

AS THEY ARE RELATED TO THE NATIONAL TREASURY.

Public Debt Decrease for August—Receipts and Disbursements—The Cattle Question—Changes in the Postoffices—News Items.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—The debt statement issued Tuesday shows a decrease in the public debt for August of $2,879,052. The total debt now, less the $49,716,372 net cash reported in the treasury, is $1,478,692,307, and of this amount $1,260,776,912 is interest-bearing debt.

The treasurer's statement shows a gold coin, bullion and certificate balance on hand of $126,371,927, or about $200,000 more than a month ago, and a standard silver dollar and silver certificate balance of $74,541,115, or about $3,000,000 more than a month ago. Customs receipts for August amounted to $17,289,418 against $18,418,708 in August a year ago; internal revenue receipts were $9,071,083, against $9,505,307 in August, a year ago; and the miscellaneous receipts were but $1,703,758, against $3,440,492 in August, a year ago. The total receipts last month were $28,064,260; or about $3,250,000 less than in August, 1884. The expenditures in August last were $22,942,525, or about $4,750,000 less than for August, 1884. For the two months of the current fiscal year the government's receipts from all sources have fallen off about $6,000,000, compared with the corresponding months of the previous fiscal year, and expenditures have decreased $4,760,000.

Changes in Office.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—Of the 48,431 fourth-class postoffices in the United States, about 6,400 new appointments have been made since March 4. The greatest number of changes in fourth-class offices have been made in Ohio, 618 appointments having been made in that state. New York comes next with 558, Indiana third with 465, Virginia fourth with 439, Pennsylvania 415, Missouri 361, Illinois 389, and so on down to Alaska, where one fourth-class postmaster has been appointed.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—The acting postmaster general appointed a large number of fourth-class postmasters Tuesday. Only one was appointed in New York. Most of the appointments were in Indiana, Ohio, Missouri and other western states. Of the 2,323 presidential postmasters in the United States, changes have been made in 487 cases since the adjournment of the senate. A list of nominations for the offices is now being made at the postoffice department to receive the signature of the president and be transmitted to the senate upon the beginning of the next session.

Think the Proposition Absurd.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—At the war department it is stated that the talk of enjoining the president or any other move to prevent the evacuation of the Indian Territory by the cattlemen is absurd, that the cattlemen are already going or gone, and that the military Indian agent on the ground has seen no way in which the troops if called into service could hasten the departure of the herds and their attendants. The war department is satisfied that the evacuation will be completed in as short time as it is possible to move the large herds. Gen. McCook, of Colorado, shares in this opinion. Gen. McCook says that if an injunction was obtained the army officers should refuse service and carry out the president's proclamation. He says that no injunction could be applied for until the military had taken some action, and that there is no indication that they will be called into service at all.

A Department of Industries.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, has prepared and will introduce into the senate a bill to create another cabinet officer. It is not the old bill which has been repeatedly introduced to make the chief of the agricultural bureau a cabinet officer. Senator Kenna does not regard that bureau of sufficient importance alone to warrant its chief's elevation to a position in the cabinet. What he desires and what his bill calls for is a department of industries. It would include the agricultural bureau, the educational bureau, the bureau of statistics, the geological survey and the census office.

Ordered to Their Posts.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—In compliance with the requirements of the general order sending army officers back to their regiments who have served over three years on detached duty, Lieut. Col. James F. Gregory, corps of engineers, and Lieut. George W. Davis, Fourteenth infantry, were Tuesday relieved from duty on Lieut. Gen. Sheridan's staff and ordered to their posts.

The Austrain Mission.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—There is no foundation for the rumors which mention the names of Gen. Palmer or Gen. McClernand, of Illinois, in connection with the Austrian mission. This position is likely to be awarded to some prominent Virginian. Strong influences are being exerted, however, to secure the Chicago pension agency for Gen. McClernand.

Changes in the Pension Bureau.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—Up to the present there have been 556 changes in the examining surgeons of the pension bureau. Of the new appointees two-thirds are Democrats and one-third Republicans. Under the former regime the examining surgeons were all Republicans.

The Work of the Mints.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 2.—The coinage executed at the mints of the United States during the month of August consisted of 204,000 double-eagles, $2,447,000 standard dollars, 20,662 dimes; total, $6,529,066.20.

Slight Frost Indicated.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 2.—Reports from the interior of the state indicate a slight frost at several points Tuesday morning. At LaCrosse a frost was reported, and also in the cranberry region along the valley division of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. No serious damage resulted, however. In the tobacco region, near Madison, a slight frost occurred, but without injury to crops. The crop is two-thirds harvested and in good condition, save the slight injury by grasshoppers.

The President.

Warned to Leave Town.

SHAWNEE, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Monday night the two citizens who have been nursing Kenney, the victim of the recent bombshell explosion, received letters warning them to leave town within two weeks or they would be given a worse reception than Kenney received.

A new line of ladies' and gents' linen collars in all sizes at Archie Reid's.

Full of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or bladder, terminates in Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the fuctions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over-exerting them, thus averting the deadly maladies in which their inaction is so prone to culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, is another beneficent effect of this incomparable medicated stimulant and depurent. The Bitters, is, in all cases, too, a fine restorative of vigor and aid to digestion, remedies malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation.

Prentice & Evenson distinctly state that Acker's English remedy has and does cure contracted consumption. Ask for circular. An entirely new medicine, guaranteed

Butter, Cheese and Eggs.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The twelfth annual convention of the National Butter, Cheese and Egg association will be held in this city November 10 to 14, opening at the same time with the Fat Stock and Dairy show, which continues until Nov. 19. Included in the programme of the business of the convention are subjects of special importance to all having any connection with the dairy interests, and producers, manufacturers and dealers are invited to take part. The Illinois board of agriculture offers $5,000 in premiums, to be awarded dairy interests represented at the fat stock show. Col. R. M. Littler, secretary of the association, Clark and South Water streets, will answer all communications asking for information in regard to the convention.

Base Ball.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—League ball games Tuesday resulted as follows: At St. Louis—Detroit 8, St. Louis 3; at Providence—Boston 2, Providence 0; at Chicago—Buffalo 4. Chicago 8. American association clubs played the following scores: At Columbus—Cincinnati 8, Pittsburg 5; at New York—Metropolitans 6, Brooklyn 7.

Vilas Returns from the Fishing Country.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 2.—Postmaster General Vilas and E. E. Bryant, assistant attorney general of the postoffice department, arrived home, Tuesday, from a two weeks' trout fishing expedition around Lake Superior. They are in the best of health. Both will return to Washington about Sept. 10.

Cuticura

Disfiguring Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, internally, and Cuticura, the great skin cure, and Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the scalp, face, ears and neck, which the druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your Cuticura Remedies, and after five days' use my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE, 120 E. 4th St. New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your Cuticura Remedies so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally and Resolvent internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement

QUATRAINS.

Hope.

It's hope that cheers us with its rays
And makes life's pathway bright,
It's soap the washwoman says
That makes her labor light.

'Tis True, 'Tis Pity.

Mixed with the sweetness there's some gall
In many young men's lives;
The pretty girls are angels all
Until they're wedded wives.

He's Always on Hand.

When aid to anyone you lend
And you are cheated, lo!
How quickly comes along a friend
To say, "I told you so!"

"Early to Rise," etc.

They are not all industrious men
Who rise in early morn;
The toper, too, is stirring then
To get his needed horn.

Lovely Woman.

Her voice's music has been sung
By poets not a few,
But if there's music in her tongue
There's often discord, too.

The Happy Man.

He little knows of care or strife,
Of sorrows or regrets,
Who, as he passes through this life,
Can always pay his debts.

Another Happy Man.

Blessed is the impecunious man
Who has a kind protector;
Namely, a servant girl who can
Stand off a bill collector.

Advice to Husbands.

Discretion's valor's better part
And 'tis the wisest pain,
Whene'er your wife is mad to start
Down town to see a man.

Briefiets.

—Justice Patten sent two drunks to jail for five days each this morning.

—The prohibition club will hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening.

—The number of books drawn from the Public Library during the month of August was 1673.

—Mr. C. Bassett, of the firm of Bassett & Echlin, returned from his Boston trip at 3:45 this afternoon.

—Wisconsin lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows' hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

—Mrs. W. C. Middleton, of Milwaukee, is visiting in the city, the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. T. Horne.

—Evansville Enterprise: Dr. J. B. Whiting, of Janesville, was a guest of Dr. J. M. Evans Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stone, of the third ward, pleasantly entertained a number of their friends last evening.

—There was a light frost in many places in this city this morning, but so far as we can learn no damage resulted.

—Mrs. E. F. Welch, of the first ward, is now enjoying a visit among friends in Chicago. She will spend about a week in that city.

—Patrick Mulcairns was to day given twenty days in the county jail for the larceny of underwear from a clothes line in the fourth ward.

—Mr. H. B. Walker is now the happy possessor of a patch work quilt which he won on a raffle of the W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief corps.

—Mrs. J. H. Brown and family, of Dover, Minn., are in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Weaver, William street, second ward.

—Miss Nellie Burke, of Auburn, N. Y., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tripp and Miss Mary Cantillon for the past two weeks returned home to-day.

—Mr. Louis A. Proctor, of Milwaukee, member of the state board of supervision, paid the Wisconsin school for the blind an official visit last night and went to Madison to-day.

—Beloit Free Press: Mrs. R. M. Ferguson died about noon to-day of a complicated disease, after a brief illness. Last Saturday she was about as usual. The announcement will be a severe shock to her friends, as she was regarded as having ordinary good health.

—Mr. Herman Buchholz's carriage shop is full of business and the work is not in the least disturbed by the building which is going on. The office is situated next to the Myers opera house entrance. Mr. Buchholz is preparing exhibits for several fairs in this vicinity, and has them already arranged in one or two.

—Beloit college opens to-day, and quite a number of young men from this city will begin their studies for the winter. Those who went to Beloit to-day were: Fred and John Norcross, Harry McKinney, Herbert Cunningham, Marsh Richardson, and Charley Russel; but quite a number of others expect to go during the next few days.

—James and Edward Conners, the two youngest sons of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Connors, of the fourth ward started to-day for Notre Dame, Indiana, where they will enter upon a seven year course at the university. Mr. Connors appreciates the advantages of education and proposes to give the boys the benefit of a thorough course.

—H. C. Hadley, formerly of this city, and for the past few years connected with the Southern Kansas railway, has been appointed general claim agent of the St. Louis, Ft. Scott & Wichita railroad, with headquarters at Ft. Scott, Kansas. His many friends here and elsewhere will be pleased to learn of his well deserved promotion and success.

—The little city of Edgerton is assuming a prosperous look and appears as if a veritable boom had struck her. On Front street there are three buildings going up—a hotel, a business block and a warehouse. A large fire cistern is being put in on the same street, and a derrick adorns the city park. Everybody says tobacco is at the bottom of this evidence of prosperity and business activity. May it long continue.

—Mr. R. H. Wilson, of Beloit, was in the city yesterday, in the interests of the Walworth county fair, which is to be held at Elkhorn the 23d, 24th and 25th of September. This fair promises to be one of the most successful ever held in Walworth county, and will undoubtedly be well patronized by Rock county people. Mr. Wilson is engaged in advertising the state and other fairs in southern Wisconsin.

—Mr. William Fathers, residing on Milton avenue, has completed the harvest of his six acres of tobacco, and reports it to be of very good quality. As an offset to the statements of those theorists who claim that the '85 crop is very inferior to that of last year in weight and body, he says that to care for his tobacco this year he was obliged to use 1800 more lath than in shedding the yield from the same six acres in 1884.

—There will be a private meeting of the athlete giants, Greek George and Andre Crestol, this evening in the Wilson block, River street. The giants agree to wrestle for one half hour without rest and then to spar four rounds with soft gloves. The parties have agreed to admit twenty-five friends of each. The match is for $80 a side and is to finish off the Monday night's wrestling match.

—Bower City Temple No. 3, Patriarchal Circle, will give a social dancing party at the armory of the Bower City Rifles on Friday evening, September 4th. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music. The floor managers are Messrs. Chas. Stanton, James Whittaker and A. H. Tifft, and the committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. C. T. Winslow, N. C Baker and Charles Tuckwood. All Odd Fellows and their familes are invited, and a pleasant time is assured.

—Mr. C. F. Dickey, of Brodhead, writes: "I have noticed in the Daily Gazette several items of what you call "quick time" in raising tabacco. Sand Prairie is a long ways ahead of your best record. Mr. N. Coon, an old pioneer tobacco grower, set his plants on the 25th of June and cut and put into the shed the same plants on the 7th of August, just forty-three days from setting. He says the crop was large, of fine quality and fully ripe. Rust and "hoppers" have done much damage to the crop in this vicinity."

—At 5:55 o'clock last evening the fire bells struck up a lively tune, calling the fire department to the foundry of the Janesville machine company, located on South River street. The entire department responded in their usual quick time, but on arriving at the scene, found that the employes of the company had got a stream of water on the fire from the fire pump located in the engine room of the works, and had the fire about extinguished. The firemen rendered what assistance was necessary, until the fire was put out. The damage will not exceed $25. Fully insured. It is thought the fire caught from sparks from the cupola in the foundry.

—There are many young people in this city, who, wishing to study in one or two branches, in order, perhaps, to prepare for examinations at college or academy would like to enter a first class private school. Many of them know just where to go, but to those who do not, we wish to call attention to Mrs. C. A. Hunt's private school. She has an established reputation as a highly educated lady, and pupils can not fail to profit by her instruction. The location of her school, while central, is so situated as to not be disturbed by any outside affairs, and any one wishing to study either one special branch or a complete course of studies, can not do better than to consult Mrs. Hunt.

—This afternoon a rather singular case was brought before the municipal court, in which a Norwegian man and woman were the principals. It seems that the girl had been betrayed in Norway, and when the young man, who has been in this country some four months, sent back tickets for his sister, the sister gave them to this woman. Instead of being glad to meet her when she met him in this city, he would have nothing to do with her, and she finally made complaint to the officers. The parties are neither of them able to speak English, so while an interpreter was being secured they were shut up in a room together, and before any one could be found who would perform that duty, the man decided that he wanted to marry. The case was therefore discharged.

—The Oshkosh Northwestern, of last evening, says: "Chief Weisbrod received a letter to-day from Fire Marshal Spencer, Janesville, saying that a delegation about thirty strong and consisting of city officials, aldermen and firemen, will leave that city Friday for Fond du Lac. The visitors expect to reach here Saturday, where they will inspect the fire department and water works, some of the party remaining in the city over Sunday. Although Mayor Haben will be absent from the city, a committee of aldermen will see that the visitors are received in the proper manner." The party will leave Janesville on Friday evening at 8:40 and if proper connections can be made will stop in Fond du Lac Saturday morning for breakfast and spend a few hours in looking over that city, arriving in Oshkosh about ten o'clock Saturday morning.

—Captain Pliny Norcross started this afternoon for St. Paul, to attend the waterways convention, which meets in that city to-morrow. Captain Norcross attends this convention by appointment from Governor Rusk, as the delegate for the first congressional district. The convention was called by Governor Hubbard, of Minnesota, and will include delegates from all the northwestern and western states. The meeting is held to consider plans for devising ways and means to secure the improvement of the inland waterways of the northwest, and particularly the Mississippi river and its tributaries. The convention will be in session two or three days, and suggestions will be made by delegates for the best system of improvement practicable for the rivers of the northwest. A memorial will then be adopted to present to congress at its coming session.

—The following, from the Rockford Gazette, will interest some of our readers especially the firemen, who are anxiously waiting the arrival of the new carriages ordered from the Silsby manufacturing company. The Janesville carriages cost about the same price as the Rockford and will have double capacity, besides being nickle-plated, etc. The Janesville carriages will be here sometime this month:—"The new four wheeled hose carriage for this city came yesterday. It is a dandy, and don't you forget it. Messrs. Smith & Doles, the efficient firemen, know just how to handle it, and feel as proud over it as a boy does over a new pair of boots. It was manufactured by E. B. Preston & Co., of Chicago, and carries 550 feet of hose and a Babcock extinguisher, of the latest pattern. It weighs 1750 pounds without its load, and cost $590. Several improvements place it ahead of the old carts. It is beautifully painted, and has considerable brass work upon it, which the boys are disposed to growl about, as it takes a good deal of elbow grease to keep it bright."

TOBACCO AND INSURANCE.

Undue Discrimination.

One of the stubborn facts which at the present time enters largely into the successful handling of tobacco is the matter of insurance. The Stoughton fire which in round figures destroyed half a million dollars worth of cased goods has resulted in a disastrous stampede among the fire insurance companies represented in the tobacco districts, some of them withdrawing from the field entirely and those remaining entering into a combination to advance rates to a degree which is not only unjust, but which if maintained will prove very disastrous to our local interests.

The injustice to which Wisconsin tobacco dealers are subjected, briefly stated is as follows: Wisconsin tobacco as a commodity while stored in brick ware houses located at any of the shipping points in the state, is treated by fire insurance companies as a risk more hazardous than other classes of merchandise; for example, a detached warehouse, where the rate on grain or wool would be 1 per cent. demands a rate of 1½ per cent on tobacco, Grain wool, or tobacco, stored in the same kind of a warehouse, located in Chicago, or in fact in many cities outside of Wisconsin would command a rate of from 45 to 75 cents. It will readily be seen that tobacco dealers, by this unjust discrimination are compelled to ship tobacco in bundles to more favorable localities; it will also be noted that the results will be most disastrous in many directions. Our lumber and labor interests suffer directly and warehouse property depreciates in value as the demand for storage wanes.

What can be done to remedy this unfortunate state of things, is an open question not easy of solution. That the insurance companies have a right to discriminate against us is a problem which they have taken into their own hands. How to convince them that they are in error requires careful consideration.

The matter will be discussed at the business men's meeting next Monday evening, and if possible an effort will be made to remedy the evil.

It might not be considered visionary to suggest that water works in Janesville would act as a strong leverage to aid in weakening insurance rates. As already demonstrated in neighboring cities favored with a water supply.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell.

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid, But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefited by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

Trap Shooting.

The Angle-worm club made another attack on clay blackbirds yesterday. Perhaps the birds were unusually wild or the wind was blowing too hard for the scores were hardly up to the standard. The first match was merely for practice and no score is given but after that three ten bird matches were shot.

THE SCORES.

After shooting off the ties, the winners in the first match were decided to be: 1st, Carter; 2d, Stannard; 3d, Godfrey. In the second, honors were divided between Sherer and Stannard, each having nine birds; and in the third, Stannard took first and Carter second place.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 49 degrees above zero. Clear, with northwest wind. At 1 o'clock p. m. the register was 72 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 65 and 83 degrees above zero.

The Uncertainty of Mundane Affairs.

The world would go on very much the same if we should be away as if we were here. One man leaves, another takes his place; but Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard, of Louisiana, and Jubal A. Early, of Virginia, are faithful to their engagement, to conduct in person the grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana state lottery at New Orleans, La. Their presence and entire supervision are a sure guarantee of the honesty of the management. The next (the 184th grand monthly) will take place on September 8, and any information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

A HARMONY SENSATION.

The Farmers of that Township Deceived.

By a Young Man Claiming to be From Michigan.

Some months ago a young man came into the midst of the people of Harmony, professing to have an intention of settling there. He represented himself to be one William Johnston, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and said that he had just sold a farm which he had owned, for $2,800. This money he had deposited in one of the Michigan banks and as he did not wish to break the deposit, he from time to time requested small loans from various acquaintances. The "money in Michigan" scheme was worked for some time, and then he began to tell of a car load of furniture, bought by him in Michigan and to be shipped to Janesville for a speculation. The obliging neighbors probably lost several hundred dollars worth of valuable time, in driving to and from the C. & N. W. freight depot after news of the furniture.

His credit was again well established, and the young man took advantage of it by purchasing a farm wagon from one of the dealers in this city. When it came to signing the note, it seemed that he could not sign his name, and, as he had too much pride to let the neighbors see that he was obliged to make his mark, he had the wagon-maker sign it. He also went into stock speculation, and after buying cattle on credit from one neighbor, sold them to the one next door for hard cash.

After being there for three weeks, he made love to one of the neighborhood belles. The affection was returned, and before long, the lady became Mrs. William Johnson.

He had a rather prepossessing exterior, could, as one of his victims remarked, "talk as smooth as axle grease," and used his talents for all they were worth. He beat livery stable men out of their pay, and probably no man in Rock county has had as many free rides from real estate agents. He represented to each and every one that their land just suited him, and they feeling sure of a good customer made Janesville to him a land flowing with milk and honey.

All good things must come to an end, however, and a short time since one of the doubting brethren made a few inquiries. He learned that the furniture, reported by Johnston to be stored in this city, had not yet put in an appearance, and that the $2,800 in Michigan, should have been entered on his young friends ledger as liabilities rather than assets. Thereupon, a few of those who had so gracefully submitted to being bled, hied themselves away and swore out a warrant for his arrest, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Nevertheless when the case came up and his father-in-law offered to settle the losses of the complainants, they relented and agreed not to prosecute.

The confidence was sadly misplaced and after two short weeks, he has left them to seek greener fields. When last seen he was headed towards Shopiere, where he probably took the train to Chicago. Should the officers find him they will care for him tenderly as it is said that he exactly answers the description of a man wanted in Michigan for a similar offense on a larger scale.

The County Fair.

Secretary Vankirk is completing the arrangements for a grand time at the fair next week. Congressman L. B. Caswell and General Ed. S. Bragg will be in attendance and address the people. A large number of our merchants have informed the secretary that they will make exhibitions of their goods, and this department of the fair is expected to far excel all previous exhibitions. On Thursday there will be a grand military and firemen's parade, and the secretary is working hard to present interesting attractions for each day of the fair. All departments promise to be full of exhibits, and all that remains to make it a grand success is fair weather and a generous attendance of the people. The people of Rock county should all patronize their home fair, and make exhibitions of their stock.

Milwaukee Exposition.

A hundred workmen, carpenters, painters, decorators, machinists and laborers are busy from morning till night, getting everything in shape for the grand opening Wednesday evening next. Many of the exhibits are in place and the final touches are being given to them. Ponderous machinery is being put in position and lines of shafting placed. Many new and beautiful structures have been erected in the main hall to be filled with attractive displays. Everything is hurry and apparent confusion, but a system and order runs through it all, and everything will be complete when, to the strains of Bach's splendid band and the thunders of the great organ, the president of the association pronounces the fifth annual exposition open.

The Silver King.

Harry Miner's "Silver King" company appeared at the opera house last evening and was favored with a fair sized audience. The company is a good one, each character being well represented, and the scenery and stage settings, although very aged and worn, were very good. The play itself is full of agonizing scenes and incidents—calculated to deeply impress an audience. The "Silver King" is a beautiful illustration of the moral it teaches. Mr. Joseph F. Brien has a fine intonation and a pretty, sibilant lisp; his recitations were given with much vigor and oftentimes the acting was excellent. Miss Helen Blythe, in the strong scene which closes the first act, was praiseworthy; her action was expressive and her voice well supported it. Jaikes the old servant, had a most excellent personation in the person of Mr. Sam Verney. Little Winnie Shannon, as Cissy, did excellently well, and won great favor from the audience she so well pleased. All-in-all, we think the company one of the best that has visited this city in a long time, and should they again visit our city, will be well received

The next play at the opera house will be "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," September 10.

The president is still in the woods, and Vilas is still in the wild west. Neither of them have recovered from the terrible struggle of the past five months in trying to carry out civil service reform.

TOBACCO.

Harvesting Well Under Way.

JANESVILLE.

The weather during a part of the week has been somewhat premonitory of frost, and tobacco has been brought in at a great rate. Most of the farmers, however, have learned by experience just how much they can expect from a heavy frost and so if the tobacco is too green to be serviceable, they are letting it stand. In some few cases this rule will do very well, but farmers should remember that the thick, furry green leaf will sell but little better than frosted goods. Some rather misinformed people have lately been writing of the prospects for '85 tobacco in a very discouraging manner, but on investigation it is found that the crop is doing very well. To be sure one or two farmers whose plants have been attacked by grasshoppers or rust, have straightway written to the agricultural journals stating that the leaf in their vicinity is ruined. These evils exist mainly in the minds of a few disgusted growers, as very little rust is to be seen, and the grasshoppers have done very little damage, except around the edges of fields.

nearly half of the crop is now safely housed, and farmers can congratulate themselves on the cool weather. Had the days been warm, just after the late rain the rust would have appeared to a damaging extent. As it is the leaf has been gathering body, gum and flavor and the '85 crop will, barring all unlooked for disasters, be fully up to the best Wisconsin standard.

Sampling of the '84 is proceeding with gratifying results. Very few shipments on bona fide sales have been made, but quite a quantity has been sent east for storage as the insurance rates are too high for comfort to the owners.

NEW YORK.

Business remains in its improved condition. While there has been no transfer of large blocks of tobacco, either old or new, a number of sales with several hundred cases in each took place. The '82 Pennsylvania which has been dormant for a long time came into prominence by a sudden demand, resulting in sales of over 1,000 cases. The prices realized are quoted at from 10 to 15 cents. The cause for this sudden predelietion on the part of buyers is to be found in the continued scarcity of old binders; new wrappers will have to be manipulated now, old binders become an absolute necessity. A notable incident in the week's transactions was the sale of new Pennsylvania Havana seed at 22 cents a pound. This was an extraordinarily fine lot of goods containing hardly any white veins. In new Wisconsin, animated inquiry was noticeable, and the sales reported make an aggregate of 500 cases at prices ranging from 18 to 23 cents.

Nevertheless, all this does not establish either a fixed market value for new Wisconsin or Pennsylvania, or does it affix to either of them a reputation of prominence. When the bulk of these crops, in fact of all the '84 crops, have been sampled then only their merits and demerits will be made apparent.

'84 New York State tobacco being as yet mostly in the hands of the grower, and '84 Connecticut tobaccos having virtually a circle of buyers of their own, the '81 Pennsylvania and the '84 Wisconsin are the only competing seed tobaccos in the market.

At the close of the week the demand for "Little Dutch" is reported as being increasing rapidly, three firms reporting sales numbering over 1,000 cases at from 11 to 17 cents.

Sumatra continues to be exasperatingly active. The sales of the week number over 300 bales. Nevertheless no ascendency in prices is noticeable.

CONNECTICUT VALLEY.

The past week has been just such a one as is needed to bring forward the late crops, as well as to ripen the earlier crops. Yet we fear that the hot, damp weather prevailing will cause house burn or pole sweat on that portion of the crop first housed. Thus far we hear of but slight damage by hail in New England. A small section of Housatonic valley, and a narrow belt below Westfield, has been injured, partly in Suffield and Southwick, and perhaps other towns adjoining. But as a whole the growing crop is looking well, and under continued favorable weather bids fair to rival our last year's excellent crop, and will be free from white veins, as the latter seldom appear when suitable rainfall is had in the time of the maturing of the crop. These veins are invariably found in seasons of drought, unless the soil is very rich. Green worms are far from being troublesome; the same is true of grasshoppers. The wind of August 3, which blew down considerable tobacco, is the only damage we have had to contend with thus far. Where the growers at once set it up it stands erect and all right; where this was not done, crooked stalks is the result, not a very serious trouble, except in hanging. As we have traveled through various parts of the tobacco region we have't seen a single plant showing rust.

N. B. Since the above was put in type a severe series of thunder storms, which passed north and east of Hartford, Ct., Monday afternoon, did great damage to the tobacco crop. Most of the injuries were in Bloomfield, Windsor and the north part of East Hartford. The leaves were badly cut by hail and beaten down in the soil. The plants were in some instances washed out of the ground. The damage to the tobacco crop in the path of the storm is estimated at $150,000. Many trees were blown down and whole orchards ruined. Several tobacco sheds were blown down. In South Winsor, where the acreage of tobacco is large, the loss is great, yet cannot be estimated at this writing. The storm also raged along the east bank of the river as far as Warehouse Point. The farmers had just begun to harvest the crop of tobacco, but at least four-fifths in this vicinity was in the field.—American Cultivator.

PENNSYLVANIA.

There was only a moderate inquiry for cased tobacco during the past week, notwithstanding the sensational reports and the imaginary sales. Bona fide sales amounting to about 400 cases, have been made, principally of the 1884 crop. We saw nearly one hundred fields in all, and found that a great many had surmounted the evils resulting from hail. Some of the lower leaves on nearly every plant were destroyed, but the upper leaves, which were small at the time of the storm, were very seldom injured and show no trace of the icy visitation, having developed into very nice tobacco. Even some fields that were thought ruined will show a fair amount of wrappers.

But we regret to say another calamity has recently come upon the crop. Within ten days or two weeks rust has developed in a large number of fields, creating much alarm, as well as damage. In two-thirds of all the fields we saw, the owners were busy housing the crop, and that, too, without much reference to the condition of ripeness. In fact, we saw much tobacco being cut which was quite green. The reason given was in every instance the same: "If I cut now, unripe as the tobacco is, I may be able to save something out of it; if I let it remain longer, I am sure to lose it entirely through rust; I adopt the alternative giving me the most chances."—Lancaster New Era.

BALDWINSVILLE.

We hear of something over 100 cases being bought during the past week, at prices which we are unable to learn. Buyers are doing more or less riding, looking over the new crop, which they report as looking fine.

The new crop is making remarkable growth, so much so that late set pieces will equal or surpass in weight those set earlier, provided, of course, that frost is not unusually early. Harvesting was commenced by some the fore part of this week. These lots were set early, and are said to be fully ripe. Next week the cutting will become quite common, though not general.

Among buyers in the field this week we notice the arrival of Albert Rossin, of S. Rossin & Sons, F. Frankel with G. Falk & Co., G. Bunzl, of J. Bunzl & Sons, and S. Pretzfeld, all of New York. —Baldwinsville Gazette.

OHIO.

Business has been brisk, during the week, though confined almost exclusively to Little Dutch, the price of which mounts higher and higher, in the hands of the few remaining holders, as the quality of '84 is developed and the fact that there will be nothing worthy the name in '85 becomes generally known. Seedleaf, now used for stogie work or export, is held above the views of heavy packers at prices that are not likely to be realized. —Miamisburg Bulletin.
